Hello everyone! Basic social rules apply here, and the moderation follows up on each report. Every rule violation can end up in an account suspension.

In particular, all forms of transphobia, misogyny, homophobia, racism, fat-shaming, ableism, engaging in harrasment, insults, etc are strictly prohibited, and will be dealt with in due course. There is no tolerance on shit like this, accounts are suspended without talking, period.

anticapitalist.party wasn't designed for sensitive militant operations. Such operations shouldn't be discussed here, and on any other social network. Details

Our servers are under French jurisdiction. French laws do apply here. Illegal content will be deleted, and may lead to an account suspension.

Content Warning HAS to be used for the following :
