

chaos.social

chaos.social - because anarchy is much more fun with friends.

chaos.social is a small Mastodon instance for and by the chaos community. We provide a small community space - be excellent to each other (and read the rules if you're not sure what that means).

Since "Be excellent to each other" is much easier said than done, we have a (non-exhaustive) list of behaviours that may lead to deletion of toots, and silencing or suspension of accounts, if problems persist. In particular, we do not tolerate:

Harrasment, stalking, doxxing

Racism, sexism, verbal abuse or advocation thereof

Discrimination against gender and sexual minorities, or advocation thereof

Violent nationalist propaganda, Nazi symbolism or promoting the ideology of National Socialism

Contacting people who made clear they want no contact. Dogpiling/brigading

Untagged sexual content, gore, or advertisement

Untagged, or automated, or excessive advertisement

Bots interacting with users without their explicit requests

Please report behaviour that bothers you. That includes behaviour from other instances - we are very willing stop federating with asshole instances.

You can find further information on our instance in our GitHub repository, which also provides a list of currently blocked or silenced instances, alongside with reasons.

We (@leah and @rix) are maintaining this instance on our spare time, hardware and nerves. Don't push either of those. accepted at 1CPysvKmAr2Tt34ygoQUoXeVn9irhx7Fvr.
